A city of treasures, familiar and new, awaits us. Our nation's history comes to life on this fascinating tour.

Included meals are denoted: Breakfast: B, Lunch: L, Dinner, D

DAY 1

We fly to Washington DC where we lodge for six nights at the Holiday Inn Capitol, located in the heart of our Nation's Capitol just steps away from the National Mall.

DAY 2

B,D

We begin our tour with a day visiting the memorials located throughout the city. Our personal guide shares stories and history that bring each memorial to life. Our day ends with a dinner to welcome us to the city.

B

We begin our day with a tour of our Nation's Capitol building, with time to enjoy its new Visitor's Center. We explore the Library of Congress, and our final stop for the day takes us to the beginning of the American Red Cross. We visit Clara Barton Missing Soldiers office.

B

Today is your free day to explore from our hotel's central location, Washington's attractions are near at hand. The Smithsonian Museums are less than a few blocks away and can be reached on foot, by cab, or the Metro. Choose from the National Gallery of Art, Museum of the American Indian, Air & Space Museum, American History Museum, Holocaust Memorial Museum, Arts and Industries Museum, Corcoran Gallery of Art, Natural History Museum, Freer Gallery of Art, and many more. Scores of other attractions near the city center are just a short cab ride away.

B

Our visit today begins with a trip to the International Spy Museum, where we assume nothing as we examine the largest collection of espionage artifacts ever placed on public display. At Ford's Theatre, there is time to explore the museum, which has interactive experiences and houses rare artifacts related to Lincoln's assassination. Our day ends as we cross the Potomac River to Arlington National Cemetery. Here we can visit the Women in Military Service Memorial, the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, and JFK's grave site.

B

The day starts with a stop at the White House Visitor Center, where we learn about the history of the White House and then we visit the Daughters of American Revolution. We drive to Mount Vernon, George Washington's impressive home on the Potomac River for 45 years. We visit the dozen outbuildings, Washington's tomb, and the Museum & Education Center for our exploration. Then, we take a guided tour of the mansion before we head back to our hotel.

B,L

We return to Baltimore on our final day visiting our Nation's Capital and make a stop at the United States Naval Academy in Annapolis. Our guide joins us again to share stories and the extensive history of this Academy. After the tour of the grounds and building we take time to watch the afternoon formation before having lunch. Our tour continues with a city tour of the State Capitol and time to look in the historic shops before arriving at the airport for our trip home.

Itinerary subject to change.
